

Boyd Gaming Announces Temporary Closures Of Properties In Nevada, Iowa, Kansas And Missouri

LAS VEGAS, March 17, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Boyd Gaming Corporation (NYSE: BYD) announced that all of the Company's properties in Nevada, Iowa, Kansas and Missouri are closing to the public, in compliance with orders from state officials aimed at preventing the spread of COVID-19.

Earlier today, Nevada Governor Steve Sisolak ordered the closure of all gaming operations in the state of Nevada for the next 30 days. In compliance with that order, Boyd Gaming will close the gaming operations of its 12 southern Nevada properties by midnight Pacific Time tonight, March 17. The Company expects to close other public amenities, including restaurants and hotels, over the next several days.

Separately, in compliance with an order from Iowa Governor Kim Reynolds, Diamond Jo Casino and Diamond Jo Worth both temporarily closed to the public at noon Central Time earlier today (March 17). The governor's order requires all casinos in the state of Iowa to remain closed through Tuesday, March 31.

In Kansas, the Company will temporarily close Kansas Star Casino on Wednesday, March 18 at 5 a.m. Central Time, in compliance with the Kansas Lottery Commission's order to close all casinos in the state through Monday, March 30.

In Missouri, in compliance with orders from the Missouri Gaming Commission, Ameristar St. Charles and Ameristar Kansas City will temporarily close to the public at 10 p.m. Central Time tonight (March 17). Earlier today the Commission ordered all Missouri casinos to close through Monday, March 30.

There have been no reported cases of COVID-19 at any Boyd Gaming property. All closures are due solely to state mandates aimed at preventing the spread of the disease.

Following these closures, all Boyd Gaming properties nationwide will be closed to the public.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.
